ORDER GRANTING PLAINTIFF'S MOTION TO COMPEL DISCOVERY

Before the court is the August 22, 2005 motion of the plaintiff, the United States of America, pursuant to Rule 37 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, to compel the defendants to produce documents requested for production at the defendants' depositions.

Pursuant to Local Rule 7.2(a)(2), responses to motions in civil cases are to be filed within fifteen days after service of the motion. The defendants have not filed a response to this motion, and the time for responding has now expired. Rule 7.2(a)(2) further provides that "[f]ailure to respond timely to any motion . . . may be deemed good grounds for granting the motion."

In the absence of any response by the defendants, the United States' motion to compel is granted. The defendants are directed to produce the requested documents within eleven days of service of this order. Failure to do so may result in sanctions, including contempt of court.
